W&Y VIRTUAL IN-HOUSE COUNSEL

BACKGROUND

The W&Y VIRTUAL IN-HOUSE COUNSEL was developed based on the need of small, medium and large companies and organizations for affordable and dedicated “in-house” legal services without compromising on the quality and expertise of external counsel.

Williams and Young (W&Y) understands this need and, using now accepted advances in communication technology, is able to be your virtual “in-house” counsel and support the specific legal needs of your organization just as if we were under your roof.

Ronald J. Young, Partner in the law firm of W&Y, has been on both sides of the commercial legal table. He has worked as a senior associate in the commercial department of one of the largest law firms in the region, external counsel to several SME's and large corporations throughout the world. Ronald has also worked directly in the corporate commercial arena, as in-house legal advisor for one of the largest multinational telecommunications companies in the region.

This experience has given him the knowledge and understanding of the commercial legal needs of companies from the perspective of both external counsel and in-house counsel. This makes W&Y uniquely suited to support your legal needs in this regard.
